

Game On!

So you are a little competitive. What's the point of playing a game if you can't win? We hear you, it's always more fun to compete AND win! You have a personalized hunt for the birthday girl, or the bachelor or even your sales team. Divide yourselves up in teams and see who has what it takes. Point values are added to the list, you have a limited amount of time and the pressure is on. Let the SMACK TALK begin! Suitable for ALL ages.

You complete an interest survey about the event or person we are celebrating. We take that information and create a one of a kind hunt just for you!

We meet you and your group to start and provide your Wild Goose Chase List. Each task on the list is worth a certain number of points. You can do a 60 or 90 minute time limit. You won't be able to complete the entire list... or will you? Get a photo of the team at a water fountain, 3 points. Get a video of a stranger singing to you, 7 points. The more difficult or rare the task, the more points it's worth. We will meet you at the end to add up points and decide the winner. And don't be late!

I went on a Wild Goose Chase to celebrate a friend turning 40! We had the best time! I can't think of one time during the chase someone wasn't laughing. We did everything from dance to live music, to getting photographed wearing crazy hats. I would highly recommend this adventure for a fun night out! - Cayla O
